Short BIO

Imagine . . . Hearing from someone who started their own business at such a young age.

Jonathan is a 26 year old who started his own web and media company when he was 23 years old. He has traveled all over the world working with businesses, musicians, non profits and many others on making their websites a goldmine. He started a fitness company recently with his 15 year old brother Tim and they are starting their journey into real estate investing. Jon was recently married to a beautiful young lady he met while acting on the set of the NBC hit show Nashville.
